

HISTORY ILLUMINATED

CALL FOR SUBMISSIONS 2019

Friday 30 August to Thursday 5 September 2019

History Illuminated aims to connect historians, authors and researchers with readers and the community to inform, surprise and inspire, and illuminate the way people see history.

Complete this form to submit proposals for workshops, presentations or author talks. Your ideas are welcome for event topics and conversations that may be included in the festival.

History Illuminated celebrates NSW History Week 2019 with the theme of Memory and Landscape. The scope for presentations and sessions is broad and could include, but is not limited to:

- Remembering where we come from: memoirs, biographies and autobiographies
- Spiritual, physical, social and cultural connection to place
- Stories of travel
- Migration
- Creative or analytic depiction, interpretation or analysis
- Landscape as canvas, gallery and film set
- Landscape as a threat or a treat
- Agriculture
- Environment and Land care
- Conflict, death, dispossession, murder, genocide
- Landscape then and now – changes over years, centuries and millennia
- Memory in landscapes – memorials and monuments
- Memorialisation

Presented by Lake Mac libraries in partnership with Hunter Writers Centre, History Illuminated festival events are held at Lake Macquarie Performing Arts Centre, Warners Bay; Belmont Library, 19 Ernest Street and Toronto Library, Cnr Pemell Street and Brighton Avenue, and may be extended to other venues in Lake Macquarie.

Email your submission to: jdunn@lakemac.nsw.gov.au or acrump@lakemac.nsw.gov.au.
